Cross had a Great Deal to Do with Winning His Own Game.

SPECIAL TO THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL. MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 29.—Indianapolis won today's struggle with the Brewers by a bunching of hits in the sixth inning. Cross and Stephens had a pitchers' battle all through, and the support given them was about equal, if anything in Cross's favor. Before the last half of the sixth, the game was a heavy rainstorm came up, and put the grounds in very bad condition. It was so muddy for a time that it was with difficulty that the players could get about. Had the grounds been dry, three of the Hoosiers' four hits would have been out. There was a large crowd present, and the game was the first the Brewers have lost in ten.

Indianapolis was first to cross the plate, and got in one in the third. Klopff made an error on Hogan's grounder. Hogan stole second, and scored on a single by Cross. In the fourth an error by Newell gave Sharpe first and he stole second. Nicol hit to pitch for a base, and Sharpe scored. McCarthy threw to catch Sharpe at the plate, but Cross got in the way of the throw and the ball rolled toward the stand. While McGowan was running after it Nicol got to Taylor. In the first half of the sixth Milwaukee got two more on a double by Sharpe and a homer by Nicol.

In the last half of the sixth Canavan was the first man to bat, and Taylor had an error on his grounder. Motz and Roat followed with hits, and Canavan scored. Roat got at second on McCarthy's grounder. Sharpe, but who scored. Hogan got a base on balls, after which hits by McGowan and Cross scored McCarthy and Hogan.

St. Paul, 2; Terre Haute, 0. The Cincinnati Reds "played" with a Connersville nine this afternoon at the new park, and it was billed as an exhibition game, and over 1,000 people were in attendance. The bleachers were as full as could be, and kept up a continual howl for the home team, which was considerably augmented by Liberty and Anderson's play. The ten costly errors and poor work at the bat made them easy victims of Captain Ewing's men.
